These Oriental SILKS

will interest any of the following professionals, as well as Collectors and all lovers of beautiful things:

Interior Decorators      Actresses
Modistes                      Moving Picture Artists
Couturiers                    Milliners

These silks might have adorned some Oriental temple, so gorgeous are they in coloring and rich in weave—silk thread of weblike fineness and weblike strength alternates with metallic thread to form brocades of scintillating loveliness; medallion motifs faithful to tradition in form, stand out like huge velvety flowers on a glorious silk ground; damasks and plain silks vie with each other for charm of coloring and interest of design.
